

User Guide

Technical Setup for In-Person Meetings & Events | Using a Partial Tabletop Interpretation Booth & Headsets

A tabletop interpretation booth serves as a semi-sound isolation unit where interpreters are seated at a 6-foot table to provide interpretation for small groups. This setup is ideal in environments where audio interference or sound isolation is not a concern, allowing in-person attendees to enjoy the interpretation with a low-maintenance configuration.

